One day a man who had leprosy came to Jesus because he wanted to be healed. The man knelt in front of Jesus and said, "If you want to, you can heal my leprosy." Jesus was filled with compassion and said, "Of course I want to." Then Jesus reached out to touch him and said, "Be healed!" At once the man's leprosy disappeared and he was healed. Before sending the man on his way Jesus said firmly, "Don't tell anyone about this. Just go and show yourself to the priest, and take an offering to the Temple as commanded by Moses, and everyone will know that you have been healed." But, instead, the man went and told everyone what had happened. This meant that Jesus could no longer go openly into any town, but had to stay out in the country. Even so, people would still come to him from everywhere around.

Wednesday's Word COMPASSION

"The compassion of God, his suffering-with-us, gives meaning to our struggles and our sufferings." Pope Francis

What was Jesus filled with when the leper knelt down in front of him? Jesus has compassion for all those who are left out: he came to take away fear, loneliness and bullying – to help people feel loved and accepted. We can experience Jesus' compassion through other people and through spending time in prayer. Ask your child what the word 'compassion' means to them. Has your child ever been left out or felt rejected? Ask them if they can remember a time when someone showed them compassion. What was it like to know that someone really cared about their situation and feelings?

"We should strive to keep our hearts open to the sufferings of other people, and pray continually that God may grant us that spirit of compassion."
St Vincent de Paul

To be compassionate is to share someone's suffering - to feel sorrow for their situation and to do something about it. Compassion is an attractive quality. Our own example in daily life can help our children become more compassionate. Ask your child if they can remember when they last felt sorry for someone and helped them. Who is the most compassionate person they know? How does that person show their compassion? As a family, ask yourselves, "Is there anyone who needs our compassion and our help at this time? What could we do?"

Dear Lord Jesus, please increase our faith in your love and compassion, and give us the compassion and strength to help us to care for all those who are left out. Amen.

The Spirit drove Jesus out into the wilderness and he remained there for forty days, and was tempted by Satan. He was with the wild beasts, and the angels looked after him. After John the Baptist had been arrested, Jesus went into Galilee. There he proclaimed the Good News from God. "The time has come," he said, "and the Kingdom of God is close at hand. Repent, and believe the Good News."

Wednesday's Word

LENT

"I hope that we all will live Lent well, following Jesus and carrying within us a ray of his love for all those we meet." Pope Francis

How many days did Jesus spend in the wilderness? Today is Ash Wednesday, the first day of Lent, which starts our preparation for Easter. Lent is a special time when the Church invites everyone to examine their lives, to make Lenten promises and make a fresh start with God and with each other. It's a time to make a change for the better by turning away from things which are wrong for ourselves or others. Ask your child what the word 'Lent' means to them. What has your child been learning at school about Lent and about Lenten promises? You may want to tell your child something that you know about Lent.

"Lent is a favourable season for deepening our spiritual life through fasting, prayer and charitable giving." Pope Francis

Each of you say if there is anything you would like to start or stop doing this Lent and then make a Lenten promise. Perhaps you could: give up just five or ten minutes of TV, computer or social media time each day and use that time for extra prayer; make sure to read God's Word in the Bible or in The Wednesday Word each week; go to Church together; fast from a meal or snack and give the money saved to charity. Can you think of anything else - something which will help you to grow in love for God and each other throughout this Lenten season?

Dear Lord Jesus, please help me and my family to grow in love and strength during Lent through keeping our Lenten promises. Amen.

1 Enjoy reading this Sunday's Gospel

Peter, James and John went with Jesus to pray on a mountain top. While they were there, Jesus was transformed. His face shone like the sun and his clothes became as dazzling as the light, whiter than any normal clothing could ever be. Suddenly Moses and Elijah, the great teacher and the great prophet of the Old Testament, appeared and were talking with Jesus. Then a bright cloud covered them with shadow, and from the cloud there came a voice which said, "This is my Son, the Beloved. Listen to him." Then suddenly, when the disciples looked round, they saw only Jesus was left there with them.

2 Wednesday's Word

SACRED

"The invitation at the Transfiguration is to listen to Jesus and to follow him, laying down our lives as a gift of love for one another." Pope Francis

Where did Jesus go to pray? In this Sunday's Gospel, the disciples received a glimpse of the awesome divinity of Jesus through the change in the way he looked (his transfiguration). This sacred encounter took place on the Holy Mountain – Mt Tabor. Often in the Bible, mountains are described as sacred places. Ask your child what the word 'sacred' means to them. Our churches are sacred places, dedicated to the worship of God, but other places are sacred too: a home filled with the love of God. Where's your sacred space? Where do you pray or feel most at peace or closest to God (e.g. your house, your bedroom, your church, your garden or somewhere else)?

The Holy Mountain experience was a sacred moment. To be sacred is to be holy – to be dedicated to God. God wants us to be his sacred people – to be holy and to try to live and love like Jesus did. Praying at home helps us to recognise and respect our homes as sacred places, full of God's love. What else can help to remind us of God's sacred presence in our home (e.g. a Bible, candles, a cross, icons or something else)? As a family, talk about which sacred images you find most helpful. What can you do to help you recognise your home as a sacred place this Lent?

Dear Lord Jesus, thank you for the sacred places where you are worshipped and praised, and for making our homes sacred through your presence among us. Amen.
